

Callum Arguet

Lawyer

COMMERCIAL LITIGATION & FAMILY LAW

P 07 4722 0267

E cargaet@keirsteele.com.au

Callum practices in family law in the areas of marriage and de facto separation, children's matters, property settlement, divorce and urgent child recovery applications.

Areas of Practice

- Family Law

Callum has represented clients in the Magistrates Court, Federal Circuit Court and the Family Court of Australia including instructing Counsel in complex trials.

He has worked with clients from all walks of life and has assisted them in achieving a smooth and easy transition following separation, either with parenting matters or property settlements. He also assists recently separated clients to negotiate and resolve family law matters through mediation.

Callum was admitted as a Solicitor to the Supreme Court of Queensland in 2014 and was later admitted as a legal practitioner to the High Court of Australia in 2015.

Qualifications and Memberships

- Bachelor of Laws, James Cook University, 2012
- Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice, College of Law, 2014
- Admitted as a Solicitor to the Supreme Court of Queensland, 2014
- Admitted as a Solicitor to the High Court of Australia, 2015
- Member, Queensland Law Society
- Member, North Queensland Law Association
- Member, Townsville District Law Association