

Connor Osborne-Jones

Lawyer

PLANNING & ENVIRONMENT

P 07 4722 0261

E cosborne-jones@keirsteele.com.au

Connor practises in planning and development management including strategic advice, development application/project management, Planning and Environment Court litigation, and local government enforcement.

Areas of Practice

- Development advisory services
- Planning and Environment Law (approvals and enforcement)
- Local Government

Experience

- Planning and Environment court appeals;
- Planning advisory for development application process
- Advising on enforcement and prosecutions

Connor has previous legal experience as a paralegal for the Department of Justice and Attorney-General where he assisted on multiple Commissions of Inquiry and assisted in establishing the Office of the Director of Child Protection Litigation.

Prior to studying law, Connor studied Regional and Town Planning at the University of Queensland. He is currently completing his Bachelor of Economics at the Queensland University of Technology.

Qualifications and Memberships

- Admitted as a Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Queensland, 2017
- Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice, 2016
- Bachelor of Laws, Queensland University of Technology, 2016
- Diploma of Regional and Town Planning, University of Queensland, 2011